科目内容	In this course, we will use English to learn about the Americas and about the United States of America (USA). You will gain a broad knowledge of this topic from the time of the first Americans to the present, and a more detailed knowledge of two periods - the French and English colonisation of North America, and the revolution that gave birth to the USA. Students will strengthen their reading and listening endurance in English, by viewing short presentations by the instructor, reading and listening to the text (Revolution, a graded reader, 1000 headwords), viewing a movie (Black Robe), and listening to some representative poems and songs (from traditional to hiphop). Students will also learn by collaborative exercises in critical thinking. At first, the materials may seem difficult, but as you continue, you will pick up words and understand them more easily. Specific topics include: Origin of native Americans, first points of contact between Europeans and Americans. Early colonies - Hispaniola, Brazil, Virginia, Québec. Immigration: settlers, servants, slaves. Relations with European powers and the Seven Years' War. The War of Independence. Symbols and legends in the early USA. The Bill of Rights and its continuing influence. International relations of the USA. The rise of business and workers' rights. Women's rights. The civil rights movement.
